

REMARKS

Applicant has modified the independent claims to further require corrugation in the seal structures as described in the instant application. See specifically, for example, Figures 3 and 4 and the corresponding written description. Applicant submits that the art of record provides no teaching or suggestion whatsoever regarding this advance in the art. This aspect of Applicant's invention advantageously provides a better seal for the liquid crystal material. The prior art of record provides no teaching or suggestion whatsoever regarding this advance in the art.

Respectfully submitted,

Date: November 21, 2003
